The Oak Tree Inn won SLTB 2012 Pub/Bar of the Year 2012 national award in Scotland. Oak Tree Inn is a family run business and offers Bed&Breakfast hotel accommodation services: deluxe, standard, single and bunk rooms in traditional cottages nearby. It is situated in the picturesque village of Balmaha, Loch Lomond, on the quieter eastern shore of the Loch. Standing in the shade of a magnificent 500 year old oak tree, this unique country Inn which is constructed from locally quarried slate, offers a perfect tranquil location for those wishing to escape from the rush of modern day life.

Oak Tree Inn is right in the heart of a high volume touristy route – the West Highland Way, which attracts over 1,2 million tourists and visitors every year. The location allows you exploring the stunning surrounding countryside at the foot of the mountains or take a cruise on the Loch from a local ferry.

Oak Tree Inn has started brewing its own beer and cider in cooperation with Kopparberg and is renown for quality pub food in the local area and further afield. Oak Tree Inn also has a local smokehouse for smoking fresh fish, which is served to the clients of the pub.

The Drymen Inn is a newly refurbished, family run, Bar / Restaurant with 5 letting rooms situated in the heart of the beautiful Scottish Village of Drymen. Drymen is situated in the Loch Lomond and Trossachs National Park and 3 miles from Loch Lomond itself.

Drymen is the first (or last, depending on which way round you do it) stop on the West Highland Way and is surrounded by beautiful rolling hills and countryside but still being easily accessible to Glasgow, Edinburgh and Stirling.

Being just a 45 minute drive from both Glasgow and Edinburgh Airports Drymen is the ideal location for a get away from it weekend.

The Inn is owned and run by the King Family, with the owners present on a daily basis and all family members involved in some capacity. Emphasis is put on comfy surroundings, good food and friendly service.

A modern country Inn with a restaurant serving good wholesome, home cooked Scottish food fused with international aspects. The main body of the Inn is cosy and houses a lovely large log burning fire and for those days where you would like to be outside but need to be protected from the elements there are two glass houses where you can sit and watch the world go by whilst enjoying great food, drinks and the friendliest service.
