Exchange students for the 2016 academic year are expected to arrive during the last weekend of February 2016 for the 2016 spring semester. Students who arrive earlier than the official move-in date of the University Housing will need to arrange their own accommodations until then. We will inform you of the exact move-in dates when we send your acceptance letter.

Dormitory Application
As a part of the online application there is a dormitory application section. All students who wish to stay at the dorm should check that you are applying for the dormitory. If your student does not apply for the dorm, it will be very difficult to secure them a spot afterwards if he/she decides differently. If a student wants cancel their application for the dormitory, they need to give notices at least three weeks before the beginning of the semester. If a student cancels their dormitory application after, they may still need to the pay the dormitory fee.

Exclusive Colleges
The following schools and departments are restricted to degree seeking students only and therefore are not available for International Exchange Students.

- School of Medicine
- School of Pharmacy
- School of Nursing
- School of Law
- Graduate School
  - All Graduate School Programs are not available except GSIS (Graduate School of International Studies) and MBA
Business Administration Courses
Due to the large number of domestic and exchange students in the Business Administration Department, the Business courses are limited to only students registered with Business Major. Other majors (i.e. Political Science, Biology) will be removed from Business courses if they attempt to register. In addition, each Business course is limited to 5 exchange students per course. The courses are on a first come, first serve basis.

Health Insurance & Medical Check-up
All exchange/visiting students need to be insured during their stay at Chung-Ang University and get the medical check-up requested by CAU Office of International Affairs

Tuition and Dormitory Payment
Fee paying students must pay the tuition in full to CAU within the first month of the semester. The Dormitory fee must also be paid in full during the first month of the semester. The exact deadlines will be informed at a later date.

Student should contact their home bank and make arrangements in advance for transfers or withdraws that need to take place to complete payment on time. Late payments are unacceptable.

Our Academic Year
The academic year at our university consists of a spring and fall semester. The spring semester begins March 1st and ends in 3rd week of June. The fall semester begins September 1st and ends in the 3rd week of December. Between the two semesters, we have summer and winter vacations that are each two months in length.

Scholarship
According to arrangement between two institutions

Dormitory Housing
University Dormitory : $1,300 for one semester (estimated rate)

Off-Campus Housing
Off-Campus Housing is hard to acquire in Korea as a foreigner. If a student wishes to obtain Off-Campus Housing, they are required to do so before coming to Korea. It is the sole responsibility of the student and will not be the responsibility of Office International Affairs.

Insurance
It is mandatory to be covered by the insurance policy whose benefits match or exceed $10,000 throughout the study period. Students may purchase their insurance plan at their home country and submit the certificate upon arrival or purchase the insurance plan arranged by Office of International Affairs. Students are able to purchase very affordable insurance through CAU, which will also make claiming insurance much simpler (approximately $55).

CAU Global Ambassador
International Center organizes ‘GLAM’ buddy program to help international students

Cultural Events
CAU organizes several Cultural Events throughout the semester for students to experience unique aspects of Korean Culture.
