

92 DAYS OF LAZY SUMMER IS TOO LONG?

Then combine your travel plans, friends and beach-days together with a chance to improve and get experienced!

AN INSIDE SALES INTERN WANTED!

For Summer 2017

We are looking for enthusiastic and willing-to-learn person to join our sales department. You'll be mostly working with calls using our current client database and extending it. Also, you will become the right hand to our sales and marketing teams.

As an intern you should be prepared to work in a fast-paced international team environment. You will finish the internship having gained broad experience in various aspects of sales and marketing.

We expect You are:

- currently attending university or recently graduated;
- pursuing or have a degree in business, marketing, management or other relevant fields;
- possess a strong work ethic, initiative, positive attitude and energy;
- English language is your friend, not an enemy.

We definitely have what to offer You:

- career start in an international company;
- friendly and helpful colleagues;
- possibility to get hired for a long term position after you finish the internship.

Have we just described you? Then, do not wait!
